

Held on the 4th Saturday of each month, alternating with International Dinners:

2018 Film Series at Museum of International Cultures

411 US 67, just south of Danieldale Rd. Co-Sponsored by Anne & Tim Perry

7:00 pm Free Snacks provided (donations welcomed)

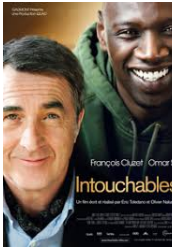

To provide diverse cinematic experiences, celebrate the art of filmmaking, and promote social discourse on relevant topics such as racial and gender equality.

Jan. 26—film “I am MLK” Documentary film + scenes from “Selma” A meaningful, fresh look at Martin Luther King Jr’s life and impact. Inspiring, socially relevant, meaningful.

March 23—film “The Judge” (Palestine) Documentary film about the first female Shari'a law judge in the Middle East. Dramatic and significant.

May 27—film “The Intouchables” (France) and “The Upside” (US) A buddy comedy-drama about a wealthy quadriplegic and the man who becomes his caregiver. Humorous, meaningful, inspiring.

July 27—film “Changing the World, One Wall at a Time” (USA) A documentary feature film on one of the world’s largest street art and human rights campaigns, which raises awareness of education discrimination by Iran’s government against Baha’is and relates it to other forms of oppression such as racism.

Sept. 27— film “On the Basis of Sex” (US) Based on the true life story of Ruth Bader Ginsberg and her husband, who challenged the court system of this country to change laws based on gender discrimination. Exciting and moving.

Nov. 24— film “The Breadwinner” + Scenes from “The Prophet” Animation Afghanistan is under the control of the Taliban. When her father is captured, a determined young girl disguises herself as a boy in order to provide for her family.